“ My friend, Kenny, I will never forget the way you could always bring a smile to my face. You always appreciated good music and I could count on a kind, honest opinion whenever I asked for one (sometimes when I didn't {smile}). He was definitely a person I could count on.

My heart goes out to Hazel. She will continue on, as that is what the Bible tells us to do. Thank you, dear Lord, for bringing Kenny and Hazel into our lives.

“ Aunt Hazel, I know you are hurting right now but just remember that Uncle Kenny is truly in a better place than we are and is no longer in pain. You will see him again. We are so sorry for your loss and will be praying for you.

Love,
Brandon, Jennifer, Hayden and Hannah Clark

“ I did not know Kenny Cook, but I did know he was family. I am so sorry for your loss. I know Nell and Connie very well. It seems like so many of our family have gone to a better place. He will be with Aunt Myrtle Robbins now. God bless each of you!
