

Laura Ann Bailey

April 15, 1962 - December 5, 2016

Laura Ann Bailey, age 54, of Henderson, Kentucky, passed away at her home.

Laura was preceded in death by her father, Gene Craddock, Step Father, Dee Austin, and Grandparents, Ollie and Helen Bryant.

Laura was a cosmetologist and loved making people “shine”. For a long time, she owned and operated her own salon “Laura B’s” in Geneva. She was also a talented masseuse who truly believed she could take people’s pain away.

Laura loved life and had a huge heart for people. She was a giving woman who sacrificed so much for her kids; they were her life. She was very in tune with her spirituality and was a believer in her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She always saw the good in life and laughed all the time, even if it was just at herself. She was surrounded by people who loved her and would give a stranger the shirt off her back. Laura was a strong independent woman. She enjoyed time at the lake and anytime she could be outdoors, she was. Laura did not have an easy life; she survived many trials, coming out of each one stronger than she was before.

Survivors include:

1 Son: Brian Bailey (Ashley) of Henderson, Kentucky

2 Daughters: Stephanie Bailey and Danielle Bailey-Scanlon both of Henderson, Kentucky

Mother: Sue Austin of Louisville, Kentucky

1 Sister: Gena Evans (Jack) of Louisville, Kentucky

2 Half Brothers: Johnny Parke and Shannon Craddock of New Mexico

2 Grandchildren: Kaityn Ann Bailey and Hannah Rocha

“ We're so sorry to hear about your loss. At Ecclesiastes 9:11,12 , it states,"I have seen something further under the sun,...because time and unexpected events overtake them all. For man does not know his time....when it suddenly overtakes them." At John 11:25, Jesus said ..."I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May these scriptures give you hope and comfort as they did our family. May God be your strength in the days to come.
