

Laura Katherine Poole Eastwood

February 22, 1988 - February 16, 2017

Laura Katherine Poole Eastwood, age 28, of Henderson, KY, passed away, Thursday, February 16, 2017, at her home.

Laura attended Webster County High School before graduating in 2006 from Henderson County High School. She was a member of FFA and had taken a technical class and was an excellent welder. She had attended Henderson and Madisonville Community Colleges. She was a beautiful and spontaneous person. The best times spent were times on a four wheeler, outdoors and being a country girl. Laura loved to take spur of the moment road trips whether it was going to the lake, to Smothers Park in Owensboro or to the Amish community to buy vegetables with her children. Often they would pack a picnic and stop along the way. Some of her favorite places were spent off the pavement, like the Geneva bottoms, Rakestraw Bridge or any open green field. She collected owls and enjoyed listening to Chris Stapleton and adored Reba McEntire. Her family would describe Laura as compassionate, loving and a great mother to her two children. Her greatest influences were her grandparents, mother and father.

Laura was preceded in death by her maternal grandfather, Ronald Gower, paternal grandparents, Prentice and Edith Poole.

Survivors include:

Daughter: Kaitlyn Porath at home

Son: Gavin Cook at home

Mother: Cathy Brown

Father: Emery Poole

Maternal Grandmother: Joyce Gower

Sister: Emily Poole

Brother: Andrew Poole All of Henderson, KY

Aunt, Uncles and Cousins

“ What I can add to my memorie of my big sis was that she always took care of me no matter how loud I screamed because of me being a little bratt, when I was a little kid I sometimes took naps with sis because she made me after all that crying and picking up toys ha ha ha me and my sis were like 2 peas in a pod we made mud pies in the mud hole on the farm and we played makeover, baked, went for walks, and had a Great time. I can say that my sister lived a good and honorable life for God.

-Em

Rest in Peace I love you sis you would be so proud of me right now and of dad .

Laura wasn't just my niece, she was also my friend. We shared laughs, tears, good times, bad times, words of anger, words of encouragement, the birth of babies, the death of family members, family game nights, family disputes, men problems, health issues, ect.. We could relate to each other so easily. We actually had a lot in common. I'm truly going to miss Laura's face, her smile, her laugh (she had about 4 or 5), her scent (she always smelled so good), her way of lighting up the room when she walked in, her style (she wore the cutest stuff), even her debating her point with me when she thinks she's right and I'm wrong. But most of all, I'm going to miss the Laura that's "Mommy" to Gavin and Kaitlyn and "Baby Girl" to Cathy, my sister, and "Bean" to Andrew and Emily. That piece of our puzzle we call our family. I Love You Laura. Happy Birthday Baby Doll <3
