

Linda Marlene Hicks Hallmark

July 18, 1946 - July 4, 2023

Linda Marlene Hicks Hallmark, age 76, of Robards, KY, passed away at 9:34 p.m. on Tuesday, July 4, 2023, at Lucy Smith King Care Center under the care of St. Anthony's Hospice.

Linda was passionate about her work in local history and genealogy. She loved helping people who were searching for a missing piece of their family tree. She wrote several books that are published in the Library of Congress. She is the author of the historical marker in Niagara for Grandpa Jones and worked tirelessly to have it erected.

In addition to her parents James and Georgia Hicks, Linda is preceded in death by her daughter and son in law, Lisa Ray and Robert Pounders, both within the last eight months, and 3 sisters: Barbara Gish, Phyllis Givens, and Pamela Bowers.

Linda is survived by her beloved husband Joe Hallmark and her cherished grandson Jacob Pounders both of Robards, KY. She is also survived by her sister Janet Nunotani of Mililani, HI and nieces and nephews.

Joe and Jacob would like to offer a special word of thanks to Karen Profitt and Sheila Yates for their compassion, support, and care over the past six months.

Services and burial for Linda will be private. Arrangements entrusted to Benton-Glunt & Tapp Funeral Home, A Life Celebration® Home, and Roselawn Memorial Gardens. Online condolences may be made at www.bentongluntandtappfuneralhome.com.

“ Linda was a good friend and a crackerjack genealogist. I met her, in fact, in the vault of the Henderson County Clerk’s Office. My deepest condolences to her family.

“ I got to know Linda well while working with her to move her "labor love" the Henderson County Historical Society to the Henderson County Public Library. I learned a lot about Henderson history. Prayers for the family and friends. So much of Henderson's history was lost when Linda died.

“ Please accept my condolences on your loss. I am so sorry to read of Linda’s passing, and the losses she endured near the end of her life. Linda was a treasure to our community and the dedicated labor of her love for preserving our history will continue to bless us for generations to come. May Linda rest in peace and may light perpetual shine upon her.
