“ May God bring you peace and comfort during this time of great loss and strength as you begin a different life without Lisa. Your family is in my prayers.

“ When we were kids I would invite Lisa to stay the night with me, she would say ok and be excited about it, until the time came, then she would change her mind. She was so shy. She had been to my house many times after school but she always wanted to be at night.... I didn't stay the night with very many of my friends either so it didn't hurt my feelings but I liked to tease her anyway. When she was your friend, she was your friend forever. We lost touch after high school but reconnected on Facebook. She was still the same beautiful person she was as a kid, just more self confident.

“ I really don't know what to say because I am still in shock, I have known Lisa for about 20 years. We worked at mcd together. Stayed in touch when she went to work at Main Street. , and yes we had a fb closeness connection. Always talked about our kids and eventually our grandkids. We had a friendship that's hard to find anymore. I will see you again Lisa and when I do., we will make some salads and parfaits together

“ I remember us watching "Who will love my children" and bawling our eyes out. I saw a movie billboard of it in Japan and sent you the pic. I remember when Sean had his first real temperature and we put him in ice water to bring it down. Poor kid! I remember going with you to Morganfueld to visit your mother and I'll always remember the way you always brushed her hair so lovingly. I remember when Brandon came along and then my boys and life got busy and we drifted apart. I sure wish we hadn't. I remember finding you on Facebook and being so thrilled that we reconnected. I remember you had a heart of gold and the love you had got John and the boys. I will always remember you, my friend.
