

Lois Jean Jones

December 24, 1943 - July 6, 2015

Lois Jean Jones, age 71, of Henderson, KY passed away at 5:30 A.M. Monday, July 6, 2015 at Methodist Hospital, Henderson, KY

Lois and her family lived in Henderson County growing up in the rural community of Hebbardsville. She attended Henderson City High School as a teenager. She was a member of the Class of 1962.

She held several jobs over the years. She waitressed for more than 15 years at the Pine Room and later the Ramada Inn. Many Hendersonians would remember her as cashier at D & M Family Food. She retired from the Henderson County Detention Center as a deputy jailer. She often spoke of how much she enjoyed her job there and the people she worked with.

Lois loved life. She enjoyed going to the Tropicana Riverboat with family and friends. She loved playing the slot machines. She bought Powerball lottery tickets and Pick 3 & 4's every chance she could. She enjoyed racing, Jeff Gordan and U.K. Basketball. Her great granddaughter Jasper was especially special to Lois.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Lois Freels Wilkerson

“ I was just in face book looking at a little white Chevy Corvair and it brought back memories of Lois who worked at the Pine Room Cafe with my mother Marilyn. During my junior/senior years in high school I painted the kitchen area of the Pine Room. From time to time Lois would let me use her Corvair. It was a fun ride. I had not thought of those times until I saw the posted obituary. Fond memories, I will always remember Lois for her friendly smile and kindness. So sorry for the families loss.

“ I have been a very Blessed lady to have had Lois in my life for over 20 years. We cheered on our Ky Wildcats for all these years. Lois shot from the hip! She helped me many times by saying " Get on with it!". Lois you will be missed by many. There won't be a day to go by without me looking up at the clouds and thanking God for your love and true friendship. Love you forever and ever.
