Aunt Spatcey was quiet, kept to herself, but was always there when someone in the family passed.
She is happy and smiling now as she is with her love, Robert T.
Love you, Aunt Spatcey, RIP

Aunt Spatsy as we all called her, was always quiet and loved her family. My dad was her only sibling “little Bill” Carter. Two things about aunt spatsy was that she was the only person who called me William which is my given name and everyone else called me Buster or Willie. Anytime we visited Beals Church she always said “ you are going to play piano and sing—aren’t you? “. She said she loved to eat me play and I reminded her of Sister Elenor’s playing. Another great memory from our childhood is me, Cheryl, Jeanette and Tommy loved to spend the night with our cousins at aunt Spatsys and Uncle Robert T. She made the best biscuits which were gigantic and totally from scratch and we always asked for peanut butter and molasses for breakfast which was so good! Cindy, Ginger, Neal, Glenn and Shelly— we understand the service aunt Spatsy wanted was private but please know we all loved her and are thinking of you all. I’m sure she’s having a celebration in heaven as we all mourn her loss here. Love you all. Buster (William Jr) and Sharon Carter!!
