“ I have very special memories of Lori and her siblings, as they grew up and played together with my children. She and my youngest son, John, attended Mill Road Christian School together. After she married, she and her husband attended Fellowship Baptist Church. The family circle has been broken, but can be re-united some day by each one placing their trust in the Lord Jesus Christ.

“ I have years and years of memories that we made together as we raised our kids. All the summers we spent camping, all the winters we spent waiting on the guys to come back from hunting.... We may have fallen out of touch but you never left our memory. We were laughing about getting tickets for picking up clams at ky lake the other day. I know you'll be missed Lori. Love you Jerry and family.
