

Margaret Fox

November 10, 1938 - January 5, 2026

Margaret Fox, age 87, of Henderson, KY, passed away on Monday, January 5, 2026, at Redbanks Nursing Home.

Margaret may have lived a simple life; she was a beautiful Christian woman created for great purpose and was blessed by the grace of God for all her needs. Her family brought her the most joy and she made each of them a better person because of her big kind heart. Margaret enjoyed watching her TV shows and watching sports. She loved to sit outside and watch the many birds she had in the backyard and loved hearing all the windchimes. Margaret was a great cook and was known for her delicious pecan pie that her family loved. Margaret fought her worldly battle; she now has her wings and is no longer in pain. She will be greatly missed. I will carry my mother's love in my heart taking comfort knowing we will be reunited someday.

Margaret was preceded in death by her parents Luther Arlin and Della Mack Borden, husband Lonnie Fox, and her two sisters Mary Louise Aydelotte and Judy Lee Summers.

She is survived by her daughter Lorie Williams (Sydney Jack) of Estero, FL; brother-in-law David Summers of Henderson, KY; nieces and nephews: Lisa Aydelotte Heldt of Evansville, IN, Amy Aydelotte of Evansville, IN, Kristi Aydelotte of Evansville, IN, Christopher Riley of Rocky Mount, NC, Don Haraway of Saint Augustine, FL, Matthew Haraway of Sarasota, FL, Katie Summers Adler of Henderson, KY, and Kassie Summers Meuth of Henderson, KY. Margaret was also blessed with many great-nieces and great-nephews.

There will be no services at this time. Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to Alzheimer's Association, P.O. Box 96011, Washington, DC, 20090-6011. “Margaret was my second mother. She always had a great smile waiting for me when I saw her. I remember when they lived on Harbison in Indy, she had the big black dog that was always in the backyard.. it seems so odd now looking back that dog did not fit her personality! Many nights I slept at that house. I can hear her voice now... she was never loud or combative just kind. Always kind. I wish I would have been able to visit her when she lived in KY surrounded by people she loved. But her true joy was her daughter, Lorie. I dont think Lorie could ever do wrong in her mothers eyes. Believe me I have some stories I could share! LOL... I was happy to hear Lorie was with her in her final days. I can see Margaret smiling in heaven now saying.. Yes, Lorie was my everything and I will be watching over her until I see her again.

“Margie was a truly rare and kind-hearted human being. She made me feel special every time I saw her, greeting me with a big smile that lit up her entire face—the same warmth she shared with everyone she cared about. I will always remember her smile.

I am thankful for her in so many ways: for watching over and loving my baby, and for the time we spent together playing puzzles and watching TV, often pausing for deep conversations about the moral choices of the characters. She defended even the “bad” ones by offering different perspectives. She was a pillar of acceptance, tolerance, and kindness. I am deeply grateful that I was able to see her one last time and say my goodbyes.

“ So many of my favorite childhood memories have Aunt Margie in them. But I really learned what she was all about when she lived with us for those few years. I was so worried about putting my son in daycare, and she didn't even blink—she just moved in to help. That was just Aunt Margie. She was always showing up for the family like that, doing whatever she could for any of us. She was such a special person and the kind of rock we all leaned on. We're all going to miss her so much. She is such a beautiful and loving soul. Miss you so much

“ Even though I lived many miles away for most of my adult life, coming home to get my Aunt Margie hug was always a highlight. She was the definition of open arms, always making me feel instantly welcome, loved, no matter how much time had passed in between. Watching her with the kids, my nieces, my nephews she was truly a gift. She had such a special way with all of them. She was a beautiful, kind soul, and I will miss her deeply. Rest in peace Aunt Margie love you.

“*Aunt Margie.
Two words that will always bring up the very best memories and mean so much to me. She was the sweetest person I've ever known. I remember going to Indy and her taking Katie and me to get Jamocha shakes at Arby's as our special treat.*

Years later, I got to return the tradition by taking Aunt Margie for her favorite—black coffee. It was always the little things in life that brought us the most happiness.

I will miss her every day, especially the way her eyes would light up with the biggest, warmest smile every time she saw us. Thank you for loving us so well. I will see you again. ❤️

“I met this fine lady in 1984. She was my late wife sister, one of the finest ladies I've ever met in my life. She was a loving and caring person to all of us. She was a great mother, a great sister and a great aunt. Miss Margie you will be missed every day and I hope you are trying out your new heavenly wings with your sisters and your parents.
