“ I’m so sorry for the loss of this great lady. I wish I would’ve stayed in touch with her and her family. I was her neighbor back in the 80s along with her friend Mildred. I had a small part along with Mildred in giving her the nickname Chubby. I’ll always remember talking to her and Uriah and getting to know most of their family. Rest In Peace Chubby.

“ My first memory of chubby was around 2007-2008 when we took a “hippie” themed outing to Skateway during national nursing home week. Chubby and I wore matching tie dye tshirts and had the best time laughing as we skated(Chubby wheeled) 💜 Chubby has a funny personality and was very loved at Redbanks. We will always love and remember sweet Chubby. She was a one of a kind and made you smile every time. 💜

“ I took care of Chubby years ago when I worked at RedBanks. She was the sweetest most caring woman. Always taking care of the staff, asking if we have ate. Making us sit down for a minute. Her favorite thing was biscuits and gravy, no pepper lol She impacted my life and I know she had the same effect on others too. My condolences go out to her whole family, she was a true treasure.

“ Aunt Chubby will greatly be missed. I could count on laughing everytime I went to see her. She would always ask if we brought chocolate or coke when we went to visit. There was another resident who had a baby doll and Aunt Chubby wanted one also. So, I made sure that I had a baby doll with me the next time I saw her to give to her. She could've asked me for anything and I would have done my best to have gotten it for her. Now, she had a wild side. Many of the laughs were because of that. She was sassy right up to the end. I love you Aunt Chubby!
