“ To a wonderful lady that I had the pleasure of knowing you were the one person that I could count on we had some very good times just sitting out talking if you needed me I was always there and if I needed you I could always count on you being there for me I will miss you deeply but I know you're in no more pain and that one day we will take up where we left off and sit on a big cloud and talk about the world like we did on our front porch I take comfort in knowing that God does have a true angel in heaven you are truly missed.

“ My Mother will always be my best friend. Not once had she ever let me down or turned her back on me. She done her best to instill morals and family values in each of us, and done an excellent job. I will always love you and miss you until I see you again and walk with you on those beautiful streets of heaven.

“ Mom, no one could have asked for a better mother! You taught me how to be truly giving of your self and to think of others first. You shared your food with us when we were young and ate last if anything was left (a trait I seemed to have gotten from you). You will never be forgotten! I know those that have gone on before us, like my daughter (Angel) who loved you so much, my sister and brother (Vanessa Darlene and Raymond), grandma and so on, were waiting for you with open arms and rejoiced in your presence! I love you mom! I miss you! And I will see you again in Heaven!!

This old tobacco is good and sweet and in my pocket I carry a piece, nobody knows but the Lord can see! One of these days he'll tell on me. I go to church, I sing in the choir I try to act like the best one there. Nobody knows but the Lord can see! One of these days he'll tell on me. I love my brother as well as his wife I'll steel his mone and I'll steel his wife. Nobody knows but the Lord can see! One of these day he'll tell on me. This old tobacco is good and sweet!

“ The world has lost one of its most precious individuals. Never have I known more of a loving, selfless, and humble woman than my grandmother. I wouldn't be the man I am today if it wasn't for you. You would go without just so those who were less fortunate could have at least something. My memories run deep whether it be the cycling of names until you get the right person or the sounds of soap operas and crochet needles clashing together in a ceremonious song of my childhood. I will hold these and every moment I spent with you close to my heart. You gave us every fiber of your being just so we could have a chance at success in this world. You achieved that and so much more. Your wisdom stands as a pillar of strength to hold onto and your care is a beacon of light guiding our way through the dark. The unconditional love and altruistic care you gave was quite literally made the difference between life and death for so many people. I take righteous solace in the fact that I am one of the few who carry on as a standard bearer for this unimaginable level of an awe inspiring legacy that should have a national monument erected in its honour. I hope anyone who reads this understands the gravity of the world's loss. My past, present, and future success is solely because of you. Many more people will benefit from you through us. If everyone had and passed on even the tiniest fraction of the love, self- sacrifice, and tolerance that this woman radiated on a daily basis then the world would truly be a better place. This is the first year of the rest of my life without you and I will stay strong knowing I can continue your noble work. There isn't a proper analogy to explain the impact you have left upon me and so many others. Mere words can't express how I feel about you grandma. You deserved so much more but now you can rest in peace, I love you grandma.

“ Martha, you welcomed me into your family with open arms, you made me feel loved from the first day I met you. You were a great woman and amazing role model with astounding faith and unwavering support for your loved ones, I'm so thankful that you made me a part of that. May you find peace and comfort with our savior and loved ones, enjoying the grace that is god.
Love you dearly, Kyle

“ Mom you have bestowed in me the values to be a good person and your love for your children was uncompromising and unwavering. You could always make me feel better when life was hard. Your sense of humor will be missed along with your smile and laugh. You are the strongest person I know. No matter what life through at you, you always weathered the storm. The sacrifices you have made for your kids is unprecedented. Heaven is truly blessed to have you and one day I will be with you again. Till then I will miss you dearly. Love your son, jason.

Martha was a wonderful person, a caring, giving and fun loving woman. I've had the pleasure of knowing her since 1977 and she was always a high spiritual woman since I met her. She did everything possible to care for her children and grandchildren every after they were grown . She was a very wise woman and I abide by one thing she taught me. Martha, in my heart you will always be loved, missed, and remembered. God bless you Martha and your entire family. Love you.
