

Mary Catherine Boswell

April 24, 1934 - June 1, 2026

Our precious mother, Mary Mancini Boswell, formally of Henderson, KY passed away peacefully on Saturday, June 1, 2026, in Brentwood, TN where she lived her last year near family.

Mary Catherine Jones was born April 24, 1934, to Cecil and Sarah Keeth Jones in Pittsburg, KS. She graduated valedictorian from St Mary's Catholic High School in Pittsburg, KS. She later resided in Orange, TX for fifteen years; Lenoir, NC for two years; and finally Henderson, KY for the majority of her life. Above all she was a devoted and loving wife and mother whose gentle strength and warm heart anchored her family. She was married to Sam Mancini of Franklin, KS for 34 years and later Henry Boswell of Henderson, KY for 30 years. Mary developed a true passion for genealogy and spent countless hours researching and preserving the stories of generations past. This dedication culminated in the publication of three books that celebrate the heritage of three families — living treasures that will continue to connect and inspire her descendants for years to come. A devoted member of Holy Name Catholic Church, Mary was a woman of deep faith and generous spirit who supported numerous local organizations that helped women in need. She leaves a lasting legacy of faith, kindness, family, and a love of preserving the stories of those who came before her.
