

Mary Helen Conard Crowley

December 23, 1922 - December 11, 2013

Mary Helen Conard Crowley, age 90, of Henderson, KY, passed away at 3:30 PM, Wednesday, December 11, 2013, at NHC Healthcare, Madisonville, KY.

Mary grew up in a small town, and was one of 11 children. Mary's parents owned and operated a grocery store and also had a family farm. Mary met Jimmy Conard in the early 40's. Jimmy had a pickup truck he used for taking people to the museum in Evansville. Mary decided to take a trip to the museum one day and that is when she met Jimmy. They were married for over 40 years. Mary was a long time member of Haven Pentecostal Church. She owned a car lot with her first husband. She also owned many houses and apartments. Mary worked at Sureway in the deli before she retired. She enjoyed Ernest Tubb and Gospel music. Mary loved cooking, and spending time with her family.

Mary Helen Conard Crowley was preceded in death by her parents William and Rosie Carter, her first husband Jimmy Conard, her second husband Reverend Frank W. Crowley, Siblings: twin Henry Carter, Vine Simms, Georgia Clark, Bertha Utley, Mae Lane, Maude Woodruff, Stella Walker, and Maggie Lutz.

Survivors include: 2 Brothers: W.L Carter and David Carter both of Manitou, KY.

Relatives and friends are invited to Mary's Life Celebration from 4:00-8:00 PM, Sunday, December 15, 2013 and again on Monday starting at 9:00 AM until service time. The funeral service will be held at 11:00 AM on Monday, at Benton- Glunt Funeral Home, with the Pastor Phil Wagoner officiating. Burial will follow at Roselawn Memorial Gardens in Henderson, KY.
