“ Our most sincerest condolences to Henry and Mary Sue's family. Although we had never met, we heard nothing but the best things about her. Especially how she made our lifelong childhood friend Henry such a happy man. We pray that Mary Sue is rewarded with the peace and happiness that she deserves and that those loved ones that she left behind have the strength and courage to live on with her memories.

“ All that counts when we leave, when we have completed our mission, is that we loved fully, and were loved in return. You gave plenty of love to so many people and so many loved you in return. I sincerely believe that, when we leave this life, our soul takes this love with it.....yet it leaves a piece of it in everyones heart to carry you near everyday. Thank you, dear Mary Sue, for the great privilege of having known you! Spread your wings and fly proudly... you have left your mark, you will be loved forever. Love, LYN

“ My Sassy Sweet Nice, in will always treasure our time together through visits, phone calls, letters and texts. You were my bright shining light everyday and my daily gift of everyday problem solver. You made my own life so complete to be in it. Your laugh and your smile and yes times your sadness, which we shared together to hello each other through those tough times. I wake up everyday wanting to confide in you,I will miss you so much. But I still talk to you and I know in my heart you hear me still. Bless you sweetie for being in my life. Love forever your Auntie !!
