“ Miss Mary Lloyd was an inspiration to me and my sister, Mary Lynne. Mr. Wilber would bring her to the tobacco fields where we were working occasionally and she would get right in there and work along side us to help out. We pulled plants from their plant-beds to go and set and she would ALWAYS have some ice water and kind words for us. She fixed Mary Lynne up good with a set of scissors and a pair of gloves since she was scared to pull the heads off the tobacco worms.

The world was a better place for having her here and she will be sadly and sorely missed by many.

Mary Lloyd was just like my mom, Helen Kloke, when it pertained to her love for God, her kids and her husband.

Rest well, Ma'am. We'll see you on the other side.
