“ All the kids at FBC as well as the kids in our neighborhood loved Mrs. Mitchell. Her sweet smile and caring nature made us all feel loved and welcomed in her home. As teenagers, we knew without a doubt that she still loved us when she allowed us to drop her off at the gleaner and take her lovely car on to the high school. 😂. Seriously, Minnie lived her faith and taught us every day by her example what it means to love unconditionally. We are so blessed because we knew her and learned so much about how to love from her. ❤️🙏

“ I worked with Minnie at Scott in the late 80's/early 90's. She was my favorite person to work with. I've thought of her several times through the years, always with fondness. My sympathies to the entire family. Virgil was always a delight when he'd come out to work to get her for lunch or to go home. They were blessed with a long & loving marriage. All my love & prayers.
