“ The Spring of my 7th year, my brother Melvin and his wife, Alice gave my parents, Jim and Elsie’s their first and eldest grandchild. I was officially an Aunt. On April 23, 1963 my niece, Nancy Elizabeth Ravenscroft was born. Boy did I feel important since my big brother named her after me, and my Mom of course. Except for the few years they lived in Baltimore and the summer visits I watched her grow up through the school year portraits that Alice would send. As we grew older and had families of our own we lost touch with each other. Thanks to her wonderful daughter, Felicia looking me up on Facebook and encouraging her to sign up we finally got to have our face to face conversations on messenger I got to reconnect. You were taken way to soon. Love to you all, Aunt Nancy
