“ To Norma's family, I am so saddened to read of her death. When my husband, Doug, and I attended Immanuel Baptist with her and Clarence, Norma roped me into helping her in the nursery nearly every Sunday! I didn't mind and loved her dearly. I'm not surprised to see her deep involvement with children. She loved all children, and I know you will be lost without her love. My deepest condolences. Betty Smithhart

“ We are so sorry for your loss, we used to go to the same beauty salon and I always thought that she was a lovely lady. She often had your children with her and it was obvious how much she loved them.
