“ Oscar was one of my special buddies at Pleasant Pointe Apartments. He never could remember my name so he called me Speedy. He'd say "there's Old Speedy." So I would answer "and there's old Slowpoke." I still miss having him there to joke around with. He was my buddy!

Every time I saw Oscar he spoke highly of his family and he missed his wife. He always said I will see her one day, right now I miss her very much. I know in my heart that he is very happy now. Love and Prayers
