“ There are so many memories of my Mother, I couldn't begin to write all of them. My Mother has taught me many things, I learned how to crochet while watching her and then had to learn how to read patterns!! She also taught me how to clean house but that one didn't stick, her house was always cleaner than mine even when she said it was filthy! I guess I was in my 50's when I decided to take up quilting and I have hand pieced and hand quilted several quilts. In the past year Mother, with a little assistance from me machine quilted the T shirt quilt she had made for DeAnne out of Denise's various T shirts. This quilt was the final quilt she machine quilted. Then she gave me her quilting machine and Ronnie and Mark moved it to my garage, I have attempted to machine quilt but I have not developed the technique yet, it is very difficult for me to walk sideways and have steady hands guiding a machine. I don't know if I will ever be as good a quilter as Mother but I am glad that she saw my quilts that I hand quilted and always bragged on how well I did. I will miss learning from Mother and getting her opinion and advice not only on quilting but on everything else.

“ It is hard to put into words how much my Aunt Maxine meant to me. She took care of me when my mother could not. She never once made me feel unloved or unwanted. She helped shape me into the woman I am today. For that I will be forever in her debt. I can't imagine not hearing her tell me as we hung up from one of our phone calls "Now you know I love you .And I would say well you know I love you too. And how she took care of my Father when he came to visit. Feeding him her fried apple pies and cooking him home cooked meals. My husband T.J. had the pleasure of spending time with her and I will be forever thankful. She was one in a million... She always made me feel so special
I loved her as if she were my own mother. And tonight as with every night I will fall asleep covered in a beautiful quilt that she made. She will live forever be in my thoughts and in my heart. And I Thank God for allowing this very special woman to be apart of my life.
I will love you always,
Cheryl

“ So many memories it's hard to just pick one. They run the gamut from her delish home cooked meals when we came to visit to how welcome and loved she made you feel. She made April and I Easter dresses one year. They were gorgeous, of course. April and I rocked those dresses and we felt really special. She often told me that she would always be there if I needed anything, and though I never had to take her up on the offer, I know in my heart that she meant it. Love and miss you Aunt Mac, Wendy
