“ Patti was my best friend in grade school. I spent many nights at her home with her parents taking us to events around town. They traded in their car for a new one each year and it was always fun to see what color they chose. One year Patty and her dad chose a red one much to Vina B’s chagrin! Vina B would make us Chef Boyardee SpaghettiOs because she knew how much I loved them and couldn’t get it at home.

*I’ll always remember her as a happy, sweet, and generous friend. I know she will be missed by all who knew her. Love you Patti.

“ Patti made the best chilli even straight out of the fridge it was hot from the all the spices she used but it was delicious. And will never forget when she set the kitchen on fire not once but twice I would always kid her about it I would tell her if she wouldn't make her chilli so hot her kitchen wouldn't keep catching on fire. Patti you were loved and will be forever missed. Love your nephew William Anthony Priest

Although I am not a blood relative, Patti always treated me as I was one. I was accepted into the family from day one. Patti seemed more like a sister than a cousin-in-law. Fly high Patti . I love you and will miss you. Sue, Shelli, and Shannin Rettig family.
