Paulette had the most beautiful and genuine smile. You couldn't help but to smile back when you saw her. I am so sorry that we won't see that smile on earth again. I know she's got to be in Heaven with her husband and all her friends that has passed. I'm sure they all have a lot of catching up to do. Prayers, love, and peace to all of the family.

Miss Paulette was a hoot and I loved being around her. She was on a mission to find me a husband. The scary part was none of us knew if she was for real about it or kidding, but we all got a good laugh out of it. My prayers go out to Keith and all the rest of the , may God give them comfort during this hard time. I love you all. See you again, one day Miss Paulette.

Im so sorry for your whole family. I know so many people in this community loved Paulette. How could you not love that smile of hers! I saw her at the Veterans Day Program downtown and she looked like a million dollars. I thought she was doing so much better. She seemed happy to get out and talk with everyone. She was like a magnet to people. Everyone was drawn to her for a hug or just to wish her well or say how glad they were to see her. Everybody really wanted nothing but the best for your mother. She and J.D. seemed so happy. I know they are happy being together again. Life is funny. Don't try to second guess it. I will miss her very much. Peace and love to all her family!

“ My sweetest memory of Aunt Paulette was just after my Uncle JD had passed last year I had bought her a set of chimes. The night I gave them to her I asked her if she knew what the significance of chimes was to which she replied she did not. I went on to explain that in the event of someone you are close to passing the sound of the chimes represents a visit from your loved one. Tears came to her eyes as she hugged and thanked me! Paulette was one of the most beautiful people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing and I am honored to have been able to call her my aunt! Rest in peace with Uncle JD, Aunt Paulette! ”
