“ I am the pastor of the Dawson Springs Primitive Baptist Church. For several years I have conducted services at the nursing home where Peggy resided. When I arrived for the service this week, according to my normal routine, I went by Peggy's room to tell her that it was time for church. Finding another resident in her room, I questioned the staff as to Peggy's whereabouts. They informed me that she had passed away. The news was very sorrowful to me.

She was my good friend, my very good friend, and has been for several years. She was such an encourager to me and so in love with her Lord. I will miss her greatly. I truly look forward to seeing her again someday.

May God bless you in your loss.

*Grace and peace,
Jeff Winfrey*
