“ To the entire family of Quentin, my heart is saddened by the news that my friend Quentin was called home. Death is never easy to accept, whether we see it coming or it takes us by surprise. Our heavenly Father is not surprised as He knows all, sees all, understands all and most of all, He loves us all. May the peace of God surround you during this difficult time. May the Love of God fill your hearts as you celebrate Quentin's life. May the strength of God be with you in the days to come. My condolences to you all. God bless and I extend to you my deepest sympathy.
