Larry-
I was shocked and saddened at news of Randy's passing. Judy joins me in extending our sincerest sympathies to you, your wife and his family. Words are never sufficient at such times, but perhaps the knowledge that old friends are thinking of you can provide some measure of comfort.

“ . I remember Randy helping plow our driveway during the big 22" snow, just before Christmas a few years back. We had to get to Lexington for our grandson's birthday party, but couldn't get out of the garage. Randy was working in the area clearing snow and in a few minutes, had us ready to hit the road! While it wasn't a big thing to him, his kindness and help meant a great deal to us! Our condolences to Wendy and family. He is gone too early.

“ Randy was like another son. He and Brad were buddies, they hunted, fished, took trips together, and just hung out together. I never knew who would be at the house when I came home and often it was Randy. He was a fine young man, a hard worker, and father who took pride in his two sons. I will miss you my dear but know you are so much better off than those of us who are left here to deal with this crazy world. God needed you home and took you today. Rest in peace my dear "son,"
