“ Richard always had a smile and a hello for my husband, especially when he found out they were both veterans. I remember when Sister Georgia and Richard were at church seated side by side. I remember when they moved a piano into the back of the chapel so Georgia could play. Richard sat in a chair right beside her. Now he had returned to his Heavenly Father and is with his sweet Georgia again. God bless the Gregory family.

“ Richard had a heart of gold. His Sunday hugs to me and my kids even when they were adults were the most gracious priceless gifts ever. He was giving on every level and beyond. His sweet and ever loving spirit has returned home to his father above. You will forever be in my families hearts and thoughts. Sending love and prayers the Richardson & Taylor Families.
