

Richard Lee Jackson

June 8, 1937 - July 24, 2018

Richard Lee Jackson, age 81, of Corydon, KY, passed away at 7:00 a.m., Tuesday, July 24, 2018 in Evansville, Indiana.

Richard was preceded in death by his parents, Lee Jackson and Carrie Deyss, sister, DeLois Hayden, brother, Ronald F. Jackson, Sr.

Richard was a racing enthusiast and drove sprint cars for more than 40 years. It was his family's legacy; he followed in his father's footsteps, alongside his brother, and uncles, ultimately sharing the legacy with his own sons. Richard raced competitively in many states including Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Illinois, and Pennsylvania, but his racing home was the Tri-State Speedway in Haubstadt, Indiana. In addition to racing, Richard was involved in fabrication, repair, and design. He painted the renowned Spirit of Indiana. In 1980 he became paralyzed in an accident not affiliated with his racing career. He was determined to continue racing and he continued winning after being paralyzed. Richard was a longtime member of the H.A.R.C. (Hoosier Auto Racing Club) and as well as the U.S.A.C. (United States Auto Club). As important as racing was in Richard's life, it never overshadowed the love he had for his family.

“ I am so sorry for the family's loss. Richard was such a good friend to my mom, Betty Stonestreet, and I always enjoyed listening to their stories about their childhoods. He was a great man.
