“ *Dear Tillotson Family & Friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. When I read about Mr. Tillotsons death I was moved to express to you my deepest sympathies. The grief felt when someone we love so much dies, can be overwhelming & unbearable at times.*

Though I can't begin to understand the grief you're feeling, please take comfort in knowing that the prayers of many are for you and your family for God to give you the strength and encouragement to make it through this difficult time.

There's a scripture that continues to bring me comfort when I feel overcome with sadness (on the not so good days). I hope to pass it along in hopes that it will bring you the same comfort - its Psalms 34:18. Please remember those words & always look to Him, the 'God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulations' (2Corinthians 1:3,4).

May you find continued support & comfort from friends, family and most of all your heavenly Father.

Sincerest Regards,

Jerilyn Jackson
