I went to college with “Doc” that’s what we called him in college. I lived with him for a year so full of energy and a great Christian guy . Had to listen to Elvis songs every night to go to sleep . Lost track of him after college and thought of him often such a good guy. Sorry to hear of his passing I’m sure he is in a good place. Love you man .Brian Geiger

“ It just doesn't seem real that such a force of nature is no longer with us in this world. Of all my cousins, Ron was the feistiest one of all. So much energy, passion and love for life and his family. We were lucky to have spent a lot of time together when we were growing up and we had so much fun, especially when he lived on the farm. As a teenager, he loved playing basketball and the drums and like his Mom, Amy, he loved Elvis Presley's music. He had a tame pet raccoon which as a kid I thought was so cool. We'd catch fireflies in the cemetery across the road at night. What a wonderful childhood we had.

As we became adults with busy lives, Ron always pitched in to make sure we had an annual Ford-Brown family reunion. He was our grill master every year so along with my Mom, his "Auntie Shirley", our tradition was to go out the night before and buy hamburger to patty and other supplies. At the end of the day, our families would gather around the pool at the hotel to continue our fellowship and eat leftovers. Those are memories I will always treasure.

Ron was such a unique person, a perfect mix of his Mom and Dad's traits, and he will be sorely missed by so many. There will never be another one like him. Love you, Ron. RIP

Love, your cousin Jeanette

“ My heartfelt condolences to Ron’s family, Ron was a kind and caring person, one of my dearest and favorite friends, over the last 30 years he became like family too. With us both being busy with life, it took us in different directions and made it hard to catch up with each other as often as we liked to but when we did, it was just like we’d just talked yesterday. We could and would disagree on stuff like politics and be laughing the entire time!...

Ron, was someone I could always count on to give me his honest opinion, good advice, a helping hand and a kind word. PJ & I will miss you my favorite, say hello to your family for me and give my mom a big hug (I’m pretty sure she met you at the gates with a cup of her coffee, just like she used at the front door when you visited her).

Enjoy walking those streets of gold until we all walk them together, it’s time for you to rest and relax (which I know is hard for ya to do) ...♥♥ Today and Always “We Love you Ron Monster”!
