Ron was a US Army Veteran, a truck driver and cryogenics engineer for MG Industries. Ron was born January 11, 1938. He joined the United States Army February 14, 1955. He advanced to Sergeant and Rifle instructor of ROTC at

Dukane University. He served with the 101st Airborne division as a paratrooper. Under special deployment to Vietnam in 1967 he was given 2 medals of commendation for jumping into hostile territory.

After his military career, he joined his father as a truck driver at MG Industries. He was given the safe driver award for 15 consecutive years. He then became their maintenance and technical cryogenics engineer and retired after 28 years of service.

By his own words his greatest achievement was believing in the Son of God, and living for him. He loved and was committed to his wife, family, friends, neighbors and his country. He especially loved serving his fellowman and country as a paratrooper. Some of his medals on earth were for jumping into hostile territory during war time. “ Dad,

I had the courage to visit your tribute site today...and such a flood of memories have come to me... wonderful and belly laughing memories. Mom has been so brave, she got that from you...she summed up in one sentence what the she and I and your girls were talking about just after your service...."DAD KNOWS EVERYTHING!"

I do mean everything...who else can light up the entire house with the best Christmas lights with one roll of duct tape, the inside of an old clock and 3 plugs? Who else knows how to barefoot ski? Who else could smoke, swim, and ski at the same time? We all knew, got a problem?, call Dad. Can't decide what to do, call Dad. Need directions to anywhere, USA in record breaking speed, at lowest cost of gas of course, call DAD. Need to know how to put something together or know is leaking on the car, and how to fix it on a 10$ budget, yes, we called Dad. Need a special flashlight, the specific gravity of water, or the exact definition of the theory of relativity, call Dad. Need to know how to make the best mashed potatoes, fry the best eggs, and make gravy for breakfast, call DAD. And most assuredly, need forgiveness, $, or a hug, or perfect WORD, from the WORD, CALL DAD.

Dad you always knew everything. I wouldn't even know how to pull up google, or even know what w.w.w. stood for, if it wasn't for you! The good news is, I truly believe you covered most every topic, that now Mom should know Most everything by heart. She said, "guess I will be getting alot more calls!" Just like Mom.

You are forever our Hero. True to form, when something had to be done you always went first. Courages, paving the way, so we would never be scared. You did it again Dad, even in death. One more obstacle defeated and turned to VICTORY. Thank you for being you, and The BEST DAD EVER. Like every Family trip we have taken, WE WILL FOLLOW YOU! Turns out Dad, you really are JUST LIKE JESUS.

All our Love, Little Roni
