“ Roy Brown was a Christian gentleman in every sense of the word.
He was a quiet man with a deep faith. He would speak easily about his relationship with his SAVIOUR. Roy enjoyed friendships. He valued people. His greatest joy was found in the circle of family. He had no greater joy than to see his children and grandchildren walking in truth. He and Ella were true partners in their love and respect for one another.

Whether we were a friend or a member of his family, we will remember Roy

Brown as one who lived his life well.

“ My condolences to the Brown family. I always enjoyed Roy as a patient in my former office in Henderson. He always spoke highly of his wife, daughters, and grandkids. Even though he was "short" in statue, he was "tall" were it counted, as a family man and person. Prayers to Ella, Gina, and Yvonne in your time of grievance. Prayers to all.
