October 12, 1946 - September 9, 2014

Sharon Lee "Nonny" Harris, age 67, of Henderson, KY, passed away at 4:36AM, Tuesday, September 9, 2014 at Methodist Hospital.

Sharon was born in 1946 to parents Foley and Lena Dillard in Louisville, KY. Her dad served in WWII and worked in road construction building interstates. Her mother was a homemaker. Sharon graduated from Emanuel High School in Louisville in 1964.

Her family moved to Henderson where she met the love of her life William "Heap" Harris. She was immediately loved by both him and his family. He worked in construction out of the labor union. They had a river camp when their children were growing up and there they enjoyed family time together hunting, fishing and playing cards. They were a family who loved being together; they were inseparable. Sharon was a full time homemaker until she had to go to work after "Heap" died. She worked many places, and retired from Scott Paper Manufacturing. Sharon's passion and first love was her family. She raised her children and her second grandchild.

In addition to her parents and the love of her life, her husband, Sharon was preceded in death by her first grandchild, Shannon Lynn Sanders and a Brother, Alfred Dillard.
