“ Auntie Ann, I just want to say hello. Wow, after Elaine died I didnt come over anymore. The few times I did you would never answer. I just dont understand, this is still becoming real. Nobody saw this coming, But when can we. Even Christ had a time to die. So shall we. Im not sure if you even got to see Jordyn. I can cry because Elaine didnt. Amaya is starting kindergarden next year. I am training up young vessels of Christ. She asked if you were sleep in your casket and I said yes. I told her that you where resting. Daddy cried hard at the funeral so I know that deep down in his heart you are there. And you are here in mine as well. I just want to say that no matter how far God takes me in life, I will never forget where I come from. No grammy, fame or fortune will stop that. Music is a part of my story and my story I shall tell. My confidence is mighty in the Lord Jesus Christ. Thank you for all the things you did do for me in life. I pray that you rest in peace ! With eternal love,
