She loved to shop online often causing the UPS man to visit her house several times a week. She was creative and loved to come up with “projects” to make with her grandchildren. She loved anything Elvis Presley ever sang or starred in. She had a love for animals which sometimes caused issues. For instance, the time she started feeding squirrels in the backyard. They loved her so much that they took up residence in the attic. She had a cute sense of humor and loved to laugh. Her family will miss her doing the “Memaw Dance” to any kind of music she heard.
