“ I have so many wonderful memories of my brother, Shawn. We spent so much time together when we were young even though I am nine years older than him. The memory of my sister, Christina, and I dressing him up like a girl with pigtails and lipstick did not go over well with our father. As a toddler, he always demanded "hook, hook" and we would always have to hook all his cars together with yarn so he could pull all fifteen through the house. I will never forget the look on his face as a young boy when he drove his first RC car straight into the pool. He had the same look on his face the day his daughter was born. I will miss him dearly, and I know he is at peace in heaven with our father, Taylor, and our brother, Chad. Oh, how I wish I could have seen the reunion of the three Phelps men.

“ My fondest memories of Shawn was when he was very young on Springer Road. It was a wonderful time. He and my son Craig would play from Sun up to Sun down! They enjoyed one another so much. They had a special bond through their love for his brother Chad. They both also loved their love for my Mom, Mary Ellis. She and my Dad John Ellis loved playing with them while she made fudge for them. I will miss Shawn smiling face and how my Dad called him "Shagnasty".
