“ I hate to hear this ! Shelby was ALWAYS !!!!! kind to me, good to me, and a truly sweet, caring and giving soul it's why we connected so deeply ! I grew up with Shelby so I seen her through her best and worst even in her worry she was always looking the best! Such a beautiful person inside and out we had lost touch these last couple years life takes us all in different directions bc it's life I hated to catch up by finding out this knowing I can't anymore. God rest your soul beautiful lady! As long as we are at peace GOD has the rest for us ! May he keep you nestled warm and tightly within his amazing and loving arms until your reunited with all those who love you. I'll never forget how kind and caring and understanding and helpful you were to me when I needed someone out here to care your amazing smile and huge heart will be missed always ! Rip sweet angel your at home now ❤️🕊️🙏

“ One of my favorite memories is when you, Shelby, and I went Christmas shopping at Greenwood Mall. Shelby was about 8 years old and such a little sweetheart. Continuing prayers for comfort and peace for you, dear friend.
