“ So sorry to hear about Sherry. I saw her in Walmart Pharmacy this fall as we were both shopping for “Old Folks” stuff. I got to catch up a little with the family and especially Ben, who was my good friend in high school. Her twin brother, Jerry, married my sister and lived a block up the street, so I knew him well. All the Dossett’s were very polite, but loved to laugh and cut up. Sherry could easily hold her own with all her brothers! A great family, living in a great time to be alive!
Condolences to all,

I grew up with Sherry. We were childhood friends live next to the Dairy Queen and had a good times , a few years later I started doing her hair and ended up doing her hair for about 37 years. Truly a good friend .It saddens my heart to think that all of her siblings are gone, they were a great family and will be truly missed . Beckie Casey Robbins
