“ I met Stan and his beautiful wife after posting to about my Uncle Joe on the Virtual Vietnam Wall page. Stan reached out to me stating that he had known my uncle and the rest was history. You will never meet a more kinder, loving, and giving man than Stan.. He was a mentor and great friend. I will forever treasure our talks and time together. May you rest with the angels Stan. I know you are up in Heaven with the best of them. All my love, Tara

“ I have known Stan since childhood growing up across the street from his family home in Pennsylvania. In recent years we shared our sweet memories of that time as well as our feelings about current topics. Stan had very strong principles and a passion for historical events which he experienced first hand. I will miss him very much. To you Sharon, Suzette and Sherrie I offer my deepest condolences and pray for his soul.

“ I was a team member when Stan was manager of Firestone in Evansville on First Ave.
He was a great boss. He invited me to his home in Henderson one day back in 1973 to go shooting with his high powered rifle. I can remember it like it was yesterday. I enjoyed being around and working for him. He will be missed by all.
