“ Tommy and I were childhood friends and neighbors. We camped out on our own with friends like H. Guy Cox and James Wright, and as boy scouts, fished and hunted together. My wife Barbara and Tommy were in the same (1960) graduating class. We extend to your family our sincerest condolences and pray that you will know the comforting presence of the Holy Spirit. Tommy, old friend, you will be sorely missed; however, we will meet again someday in the better place called heaven.
