

Wanda Quilliam

June 13, 1953 - June 5, 2015

Wanda Quilliam, age 61, of Evansville, IN, formerly of Henderson, passed away at 9:51PM, Friday, June 5, 2015, at Deaconess Hospital in Evansville, IN.

As a girl, Wanda had a lot of fun being a Girl Scout; when she wasn't too busy keeping her three little brothers in check, that is. She had a great love for all critters but especially her pet cats. Wanda was a wonderful caregiver of her family, especially for her mother, Etta Ruth, in her later years. Wanda was a talented ceramics artisan. Her ceramic creations have extraordinary detail and are beautifully painted. Her talents extend into the kitchen as a cake decorator. This hobby has taken root in her Grandson, and he is following in her footsteps learning the culinary art himself.

In addition to her mother, Etta Ruth Roberts, Wanda was preceded in death by her husband, William J. Quilliam, and granddaughter, Alexandra Quilliam.

Survivors include:

1 Son: Michael Quilliam and wife Maureen, Winchester, VA

1 Daughter: Kimberly Wilkerson and husband Bryon, Evansville, IN

“ One of my favorite memories of Wanda was when I visited her many many years ago right after she had surgery. I went to her hospital room. She told me not to make her laugh, but I did and she tore a stitch. She got me back weeks later when I was taking a nap and she poured a glass of ice water on me!

“ Wanda was a great sister-in-law. She didn't expect anything out of me --- just accepted me. My favorite memory of her is visiting with her and Bill and the kids at the Roberts' house on Wilson Switch. And I always loved hearing the stories about Jerry when he was little --- like when she dropped him on his head.

“ When I was a teenager she taught me the wonderful world of skipbo!!! We played for hours! Literal hours! And she was always so much fun and caring! I will always carry the fondest memories of my aunt Wanda and look forward to seeing her in heaven!
