“ I loved Pud and he was such a good friend when we were just kids. I always tell the story of how when Pud was about 15 and I was 14 I suppose, I had a small rubber boat and a couple of aluminum paddles. We decided one Saturday to paddle that boat over to Henderson Island and spend the day. We jumped in the raft down behind the tennis courts and paddled over to the island. Well, we just flew down the river and had a great time on the island exploring and swimming. Pud was scared of exactly nothing and we didn't give a second thought to how we were going to get back upstream. When it was time to head back we jumped in and headed for PACO Pearsall's backyard, which was back upstream just a bit, but we thought we could make it ok. The current was pretty fast that day and it was windy, so we had exactly no chance of paddling back upstream against the current. The harder I paddled the more old PUD laughed and before long we were way downstream. We finally made it to the bank down behind the old country club. We were barefoot and covered with mud and pulled that little raft up the bank and right up to the 7th green lol. I'm sure the men playing golf that day thought we had lost our minds. I guess we didn't care much, and it had been a great day. I hope to see you on the other side old friend. God's speed.

“ I met Pus for the first time in the 7th grade at Barrett. He always had a smile on his face and a kind of funny thing to say. There was no pretence with Pud. My thoughts are with his family

“ There’s so many good memories with Pud at Dana I don’t know where to start! When it was time for lunch we always had our own little group that sat together! PUD of course, Toni Ann, Candy Man, Lanny, Lisa Jones, Rob Wilson and myself! Everyday we’d set there with Pud at the center telling jokes or always having something to say to make you laugh! Some of us have already left Dana but know matter what PUD stayed in contact! He was always a great friend to me and he’ll never be forgotten!!! RIP MY FRIEND! We all still love you and always will! The DANA CLAN!!!!!!❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️
