“ Billy was a great guy I grew up with him in Cincinnati lost touch with him over the years
But we got back in touch on face book . We msgd back and forth and Billy asked for prayer due to his battle with cancer.
I know Billy was in the right standing with God and his last breath on earth was his first breath in heaven. Rest easy my friend you fought a good fight. To the family I will kerp you in prayer and my deepest condolences to you.
Very respectfully

I worked with Bill at Rally's . Many years . Watched him struggle and bounce right back . He was a hard working man , smart, and always wanted a better life . Lost touch for a while , but talked when he had his son ... he said he felt complete . " at least I think I do " . He was a great guy and I'm sure was a great father . He will be missed .
